DETAIL ACTION

1. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters as stated in objections below.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex Parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.

CLAIM OBJECTIONS

- 1. Claim 1 recites "the second telecommunications" (line 8). There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
- 2. Claim 11 recites "the second telecommunications" (line 8). There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Application/Control Number: 09/635,018

Art Unit: 2645

3. Claim 26 recites "the second telecommunications" (line 7). There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

4. Claim 31 recites "the first telecommunications" (line 5). There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

ALLOWABLE SUBJECT MATTER

- 2. Claims 1-38 are allowed.
- 3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Upon close review of the claims, the prior art and applicant's remarks it appears that the allowance of claims 1-38 is appropriate. The prior art does not teach a first trigger, a second trigger, and a third trigger. Each trigger is specific to a different communication service. The prior art (Tatchell et al) teaches a personal agent enables the subscriber to activate telephone services. The personal agent integrates with CLID and a personal directory for a specific calling feature based on the identified CLID. It is not obvious to modify the prior art so that the three service-specific triggers are determined for different services. These triggers, as claimed, are switch oriented instead of functioning in a personal agent as taught the referenced prior art.
